

Timings	Harvest Fest's Big Tent 2022 - Talks & celebrations	Demos, Activities, Small talk circles & other Offerings
10.00 - 10.30	Welcome to Harvest Fest 2022: (Falkland, Fife, Scotland) What have we to celebrate at this time? & what next?	Gathering Begins - with Demos & dancing, Songs & stories at the hearth, Hutters learning to build good huts, crafting & Exhibitors Tent (detail below)
10.30 - 11.30	Regenerative Place-making – with Jenny Andersson (Really Regenerative), Prof Seaton Baxter (Natural Design) & Gordon Mole (Head of Business and Employability, Fife Council) leading onto...	Nature Connection with Kids with Kath Webster Plus activities at hearth and exhibition area (details below)
1130	Celebrating the Imagineers – See & hear local children's great ideas for the future of their estate (with the Childrens' Parliament)
11:45- 12:30	A quiet time in the Big Tent	Revelations of the archaeological story of Falkland hill Joe Fitzpatrick Forest Medicine Rory MacPhee 'Flour to the People' - it's our Dough Andrew Whitley & Mrs Mash Think Global act Local: Towards Regenerative Communities and Sustainable Land Use Rehema White
1230	Enjoy feasting on your lunch Please note 2 course lunch box by the amazing Chef & Family of Growers at Falkland Kitchen Farm must be pre-booked	Earth & Fibre in Huts & homes: Building local Becky Little Drum circle with drum-maker Martin Watson Forest Gardening Alan Carter Harvest Hat Making around the hearth
1.30 - 2.30	What is the future for food in Fife? with Dr Rehema White (Learning for Sustainability), Fi Martynoga (Author), Andrew Whitley (Scotland the Bread), Jonnie Balfour (mob-grazing etc) and Nat Dixon Falkland Kitchen Farm & Estate farm manager Robin Nisbet	The healing & restorative power of mindfully connecting with nature Gary Young and Madhu Mastan Nature Connection with Kids Paula Cowie
2:30pm - 3:15pm	Open space until 3pm - Best Harvest Hat Awards With Mrs Mash	Robust Community decision-making - Verene Nicholas Green classrooms Scotland for all Schools - Jim (Seamus) Stout Huts & Wellbeing Andrew Johnson
3:30- 4:30	Huts, hut-building and happiness with Lesley Riddoch (Broadcaster), Guy Watt (Scottish Timber Industry Leadership Group), Tom Morton (Arc Architects), Becky Little (Rebearth), Alan Carter (1000 Huts) and Andrew Johnson (Cash Wood hut site)	Orchard Walk - apples & what you can make of them Harvest Dancing @ 4.30pm with Catherine Wright (Dancing with life)
All Day	Around the Hearth : Crafting, Stories, Apple Games, Harvest Hats & songs with some well  kent faces like Jimmy Hutchison & Erika Douglas, George Francis (also playing in the Kirk at 7pm)
All Day	Exhibitors: *Scotland the Bread *Falkland Rural Enterprises *Newburgh Handloom Weavers *Falkland Kitchen Farm *Rosie's Herbal Remedies *Scottish Sawmill Services *Apple pressing *A Permaculture Journey: Crisis Consumer to Conscious Custodian *1000 Huts Tea Shirts *Reforestation Scotland *Imagineers - Children's Parliament *Hut of Wellbeing *Trail Maps/ walks * Rebearth

Please note that Harvest Fest 2022 is alive, agile and evolving (so it will change...)
And online bookings will close at 5pm on Thursday 22nd September

Saturday 24 September 10–5

Harvest Fest at Falkland Estate

Tickets available on the gate at Falkland Estate

Attendees are welcome to bring a packed lunch and join for some or all of today's activities, talks and demonstrations

How can we create flourishing places that nourish people?

Celebrating the abundance of what we can grow

Speakers include:

broadcaster Lesley Riddoch,

Jenny Andersson of the Really Regenerative Centre,

Andrew Whitley of Scotland the Bread,

Prof Seaton Baxter OBE a master of natural design and

Guy Watt, co-chair of the Scottish Forest Industry Group

Images of Falkland Estate Home Farm apples, cider, apple juice, lamb, beef and local honey